

Cell Phone Behavioral Policy

Cell phones are not to be used in the library. Cell phones must be turned off or set to vibrate while in the library. Patrons shall move their cell phone use (both incoming and outgoing calls outside of the building). This allows for your own privacy and consideration of other library patrons inside the library. Patrons violating this will be asked to leave by staff.